Well, Dad is an unappealing shade of grayish-purple, and the Cowboy is an even nastier shade of greenish-taupe, but everybody's here.

Full house. Happy harpy. It's creepy in here when the desks aren't full.

Next year. Allayouze. SHOTS.

Feeling up to some wall tonight, Platypus?

I'm inspired to try this dyno thing again. Which means bouldering cave.

Which means pain.

(Downclimbing crazy shit, but not all of us have stickup on our soles. Souls. Whatever.)

Who's the ace investigator who sits next to the guy who forgets to lock his screensaver when he gets up for coffee? And has had that seat since September?

No, before you ask, I have not ratted you out. We can discuss my payment at a later date. When you've had time to consider the implications.

And since you didn't ask, it was balut.

Unborn baby ducks for lunch. You rat us out, and I tell the protesters down at Planned Parenthood.

Mr. Reporter to most people. But since we're friends, you can just call me "Ace."

Now that was a reaction worth waiting almost five months now.

I wish you could have seen the blood draining from your face. Even the back of your neck went pale.
